St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.-Twentyseven persons are dead and 33 wounded ably be larger. as the result of an attempt Saturday afternoon, to assassinate Premier Stolypin of Russia with a bomb while he near St. Petersburg. The premier was receiving visitors in a private room and had both legs broken by the explosion and subsequently succumbed to her injuries; General Zameatin, the premier's personal secretary; M. Khovostoff, former governor of the province of Penza; Col. Federoff, chief of the premier's personal guard; Court Chamberlain Davidoff, Court Chamberlain Voroniu, Aid Doubassoff, four women and two children. The wounded include M. Stolypin's three-year-old son, who is seriously, although not fatally, injured, and a number of persons prominent in the official and social world. Of the four conspirators was engineered the assassination, two were killed with their victims, while the third, who acted as coachman for the party, and the fourth, who re-mained inside the carriage, were hadly wounded, and are now in the St. Peter He Urges the Citizens of This Country Oyster Bay, Aug. 27.—President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation urg-ing the citizens of the United States to
